DESCRIPTION:

Today you will discover the beauty and the source of Hawaii Island's creation. Stop at the most renowned Punalu'u Black Sand Beach, distinguished for its aqueous geology, basaltic beauty, endangered wildlife and Hawaiian History.

Next on to the Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park, the world's most active Volcano. Here you can see some of the most unique geological, biological and cherished cultural landscapes in the world. Watch steam clouds form as groundwater seeps onto hot volcanic rock at the famous Steam Vents.

Next, marvel at the beautiful Rainbow Falls, this 80-foot waterfall is famous for the vibrant rainbows that appear in its mist during sunny mornings. Finally, take in the scenic views of historic Hilo Town, with a brief stop at Big Island Candies for a sweet treat for yourself or for a friend.

Volcano Wikiwiki BY VAN

(Small Group Tour)

DESCRIPTION:

Experience the diverse beauty of East Hawaii on a full-day excursion that blends scenic stops, cultural highlights, and the volcanic wonders of Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park. Along the way, pause to visit Rainbow Falls and Big Island Candies before arriving in Hilo, a town steeped in history and local flavour.

Continue into the National Park with a National Park Certified Guide who shares insight into the island's geology and living landscape. Explore smoking craters, hardened lava flows, and lush rainforest trails, each stop revealing a new facet of Hawaii's dynamic terrain.

This 8-hour tour features easy to moderate hiking, balanced with scenic drives and curated stops that keep the pace engaging. Designed as the perfect introduction to East Hawaii, it combines waterfalls, culture, and the power of an active volcanic landscape into one unforgettable day.

DESCRIPTION:

In Hawaiian, Ali'i means royalty, and the Afternoon Ali'i Adventure has been designed to deliver a truly elevated experience aboard KONASTYLE©. This semi-private sail welcomes a maximum of just 22 participants, giving you extra space and personalized service on the luxurious 50' catamaran.

Experienced captains use their local knowledge to select the best snorkel destination of the day — always aiming for calm waters and uncrowded sites. Slip easily into the ocean using the grand staircase and explore vibrant reefs filled with tropical i'a (fish), coral gardens, and marine life unique to Kona's coast.

On board, enjoy premium touches including high-quality snorkel gear, towels, reef-safe sunscreen, a delicious lunch, and a full bar with complimentary beverages. This is the perfect choice for those seeking an intimate, all-inclusive afternoon at sea.

Sunset Cruise & MANTA RAY SNORKEL

DESCRIPTION:

Upon boarding, enjoy a refreshing mimosa before setting out along the Kona coast to enjoy a breathtaking Hawaiian sunset. As twilight fades, the boat arrives at world-famous Manta Village—one of the few places in the world where you can experience what the Travel Channel calls “one of the top 10 things to do in your lifetime.”

After a full safety briefing, experienced guides lead guests into the water for a remarkable snorkel with manta rays, whose wingspans can reach up to 18 feet as they glide in a graceful underwater ballet just beneath the surface.

Back on board, the open bar awaits along with hot cocoa, tea, and chocolate-covered macadamia nuts. As we sail home, stargaze and take in the sparkling lights of Kona town—the perfect ending to an unforgettable evening.

MAXIMUM:

12 Participants

INCLUDED:

Snacks, Refreshments, Helmet & Rain Gear (if required)

DRIVE TIME:

1.5 hours each way

*Advanced fitness and confident bike handling required

E-bikes or bikes available.

DESCRIPTION:

This is by far the best way to experience one of the most unique national parks in the country. Explore Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park on a guided e-mountain bike tour designed for active travellers with recent cycling experience.

Glide across vast lava fields, climb through native rainforest, and circle volcanic craters with a professional guide by your side. Luxury transport, premium equipment, and small-group service make this an extraordinary way to connect with Hawaii's sacred volcanic landscape — in motion.

While often described as family-friendly, participants must have advanced fitness and confident bike handling. Riders need to be able to navigate traffic, wet conditions, and gravel roads for their own safety and that of the group.

ROAD E-BIKE TOUR

DESCRIPTION:

Cruise along one of the Big Island's best-kept secrets with an unforgettable ride on historic Mana Road. Beginning at Anna Ranch in Waimea, this adventure takes you into the foothills of Mauna Kea, following a quiet paniolo (Hawaiian cowboy) trail that once served as the main route to move cattle to market in Hilo.

Ride through rolling pastures, along sweeping ridgelines, and across wide-open landscapes where the views of Mauna Kea and the Kohala Coast are nothing short of epic. Expect a mix of scenic cruising, gentle climbs, and flowy descents that make this tour both fun and rewarding.

With premium electric mountain bikes available, you'll enjoy the distance and views with ease, while our expert guides keep the pace comfortable for every rider. A perfect blend of adventure, history, and Hawaii's natural beauty.

DESCRIPTION:

Ride from paniolo (cowboy) country down to Waipi'o Valley Lookout, where sweeping vistas of the Valley of the Kings await. Pedal downhill along quiet back roads until you arrive at old Honoka'a town, a charming community that feels frozen in time.

From Honoka'a, continue another 12 miles to reach the breathtaking Waipi'o Lookout, completing what many call the best bike ride on the Big Island. For those seeking even more adventure, descend into the legendary Waipi'o Valley itself, where hidden backroads once supported the island's thriving sugarcane industry.

This guided experience blends outdoor adventure with Hawaiian history and natural beauty, offering a rare glimpse into one of the most storied landscapes on the Hāmākua Coast. Moderate fitness and confident bike handling are required for this ride.

Kohala UTV ADVENTURE

DESCRIPTION:

The Kohala UTV Adventure offers a rare journey into Kohala Iloko — “Inner Kohala” — a land once defined by isolation, rich soils, and abundant waters that sustained a proud and determined people destined to rule. Led by guides rooted in this community, explore private lands, murmuring streams, cascading waterfalls, and lush uplands that remain kapu (forbidden) to all but invited guests.

Your off-road ride begins in historic Hawi and travels from sea to mountain, where the rugged trails open to breathtaking views of Pololū Valley, the Valley of the Long Spear. Along the way, stories of chiefs, warriors, and rebels bring the land to life, blending culture with scenery.

Helmets, goggles, and rain gear are provided for comfort and safety. This 2½-hour experience is both an adventure through wild terrain and a deeper encounter with the living history of Kohala.

DESCRIPTION:

Kohala is a land rich in history and natural beauty, where dramatic landscapes meet timeless Hawaiian culture.

Your journey begins with a scenic drive across vast lava fields created by the island's volcanoes, before giving way to the lush green countryside of North Kohala. Along the way, pass through the charming sugarcane plantation towns of Hawi and Kapa'au, birthplace of Hawaii's first king, King Kamehameha.

From there, venture beyond locked gates onto private land for an experience few visitors ever see. Follow your guide on a 1.25 mile hike along a tranquil stream, encountering a series of waterfalls with the opportunity to swim beneath a refreshing cascade if you wish.

The day concludes with a picnic lunch at a breathtaking private overlook, where you'll take in sweeping views of dramatic sea cliffs, remote valleys, and the striking black sand beach of Pololu Valley.

Kona COFFEE & CRATERS EXPERIENCE

(Small Group Tour)

DESCRIPTION:

Journey to the cool, misty slopes of Hualālai Volcano for an adventure that blends geology, nature, and culture. Passing through locked gates for exclusive access, travel off-road up the mountain before beginning a guided hike with an Interpretive Naturalist. The trail reveals a surreal landscape of black lava flows, native forest alive with birdsong, and the dramatic Kaupulehu Crater — the heart of the 1801 eruption. Travel to magnificent coastal viewpoints and stunning lava formations, walk amidst a forest of native birdsong and even scramble through a hidden lava tube.

This tour includes 3–4 miles of moderate to strenuous hiking with up to 1,000 feet of elevation gain and loss on uneven, unpaved trails. Afterward, enjoy a picnic lunch and visit a working Kona coffee farm for a guided tour with tastings of world-famous Kona coffee.

Today, you will visit Pu'uhonua o Honaunau, or the Place of refuge. Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau immerses you into Hawaiian culture. This national historic park was once the home of royal grounds and a place of refuge for ancient Hawaiian lawbreakers. Rich in history and culture, the Place of Refuge takes you back in time of a sacred site.

The St. Benedict's Painted Church overlooks the beautiful and historic Kealakekua Bay. The church, while still an important historical site, is still a vibrant parish today. You will also have an opportunity to taste some of the best coffee on the island during our brief stop. Get more information on their coffee while tasting some of their delicious flavors..

Mauna Kea SUMMIT & STARS

DESCRIPTION:

Journey from sea level to the 14,000-foot summit of Maunakea, where world-class clarity meets dramatic beauty. After a picnic-style dinner, ascend to Hawaii's most sacred peak for a sensational sunset above the clouds, surrounded by the world's largest collection of observatories.

This tour involves less than 1,000 feet of walking at extreme elevation, making the experience accessible while still extraordinary.

As darkness falls, descend to a more comfortable elevation to enjoy a private star show. Sip hot cocoa as your guide reveals the night sky through an 11-inch Celestron telescope.

New — Digital Astrophotography! Experience deep space like never before with technology inspired by the Hubble Telescope. View live HD images of galaxies, nebulae, and star clusters on a tablet, and take home digital copies of the evening's celestial highlights.

DESCRIPTION:

Exploring the Kona Coast on a Zodiac raft is an experience like no other. Guests are introduced to sea caves, lava tubes, grottos, and wave-powered blowholes — places larger boats simply can't reach. With small groups aboard 24-foot Zodiacs, the atmosphere is personal and intimate, while the ride itself is fast, fun, and exhilarating.

As your Naturalist Captain "talks story," you'll learn about Hawaiian history, folklore, and geology while keeping watch for dolphins, manta rays, turtles, and other marine life. The destination is Kealahou Bay, a National Marine Park and site of the Captain Cook Monument. With calm waters, incredible visibility, and vibrant reefs, it's one of Hawaii's premier snorkelling spots.

Coffee Roasting EXPERIENCE & TOUR

DESCRIPTION:

Discover the world's first trellised coffee plantation and immerse yourself in the art of coffee from bean to cup. Begin your visit with a freshly brewed cup of 100% Kona coffee before setting off on a 30-minute guided tour of the farm and facilities.

Learn how coffee is cultivated, processed, roasted, and packaged while taking in sweeping 270-degree views of the Pacific Ocean and Kona Coast. The highlight of your visit is a hands-on roasting session using an artisanal Italian roaster, where you'll craft your own 10 ounces of coffee to take home. Whether you're drawn to bold or subtle flavor notes, you'll discover the balance and precision that goes into every great cup. This one-of-a-kind experience blends education, creativity, and unforgettable island scenery.

Non-Alcoholic Beverages & Snacks

DRIVE TIME:

1 hour each way

DESCRIPTION:

Sail aboard the luxurious 50-foot catamaran to the world-famous Manta Ray Village for a truly unforgettable evening. Upon arrival, the crew provides a professional briefing on these gentle giants before preparing you for the adventure ahead.

Snorkelling guests will join guides on a custom-built manta flotation raft. From the surface, you'll watch as manta rays—some with wingspans over 12 feet—gracefully glide and feed on plankton illuminated by the float's lights. The view from above feels like witnessing an underwater ballet, as the rays circle just feet away.

Prefer to stay dry? Ride-along guests can relax on deck, enjoying the comfort while observing the mesmerizing display from the water's surface. This bucket-list Kona experience combines ocean adventure with pure island magic.

Kona Town SURFING ADVENTURE

DESCRIPTION:

Experience the thrill of surfing in the place where the sport was born. With Kona's gentle waves and expert local instructors, this adventure is tailored for beginners looking to build confidence and ride their first waves in a safe, supportive setting. Decades of surf knowledge and a deep connection to Hawaii's ocean culture make this more than a lesson — it's an introduction to a way of life.

Learn essential techniques, from paddling and balance to timing your ride, with step-by-step guidance in the water. With encouragement and personalized coaching, you'll soon be standing on your board and gliding across the warm Pacific swells — a milestone moment to remember.

Unlike other courses, you'll zip seamlessly from tree to tree—no long walks or stairs in between. Certified guides ensure comfort and safety while sharing stories of the island's natural and cultural history. Feel the rush of flying at speeds up to 45 mph through the canopy, then pause to enjoy sweeping views of the coastline, neighboring islands, and remnants of ancient Hawaiian agricultural systems. Blending excitement, history, and sustainability, this elevated experience is perfect for both first-time zipliners and seasoned adventurers.

Luau at FAIRMONT ORCHID

DESCRIPTION:

No trip to Hawai'i is complete without a lū'au, and the Hawai'i'loa Lū'au at Fairmont Orchid offers one of the most memorable experiences. Held at the Plantation Estate, once a gathering place for Hawaiian royalty, this evening brings together tradition, culture, and flavor. Enjoy a vibrant showcase of hula, Samoan fire knife dancing, and live music while savoring authentic island cuisine.

The feast includes local favorites, with the star of the table being the kiawe-smoked kalua pork—tender, juicy, and infused with smoky flavor from hours of slow cooking. Paired with a hosted bar and an array of Hawaiian delicacies, the meal is as unforgettable as the performances. Set against the backdrop of the Kohala Coast, this lū'au is a celebration of Hawaiian heritage and a must-do during your stay at the Fairmont Orchid.
